

Please do not lift the ban on cell phone use aboard aircraft with the exception of text messaging and e-mail with the handset muted. In view of the fact that it is a confined space with passengers held "captive" for the duration of the flight, allowing their full use would result in "cell phone rage." We do not need more security issues in the skies.